

DO LOCAL FANS WANT LEAGUE TEAM HERE

Base Ball Men From Kentucky Small Cities Called To Meet At Lexington Tonight

Plans for the revival of the old Blue Grass League will be discussed at a meeting of base ball fans at the Phoenix hotel at Lexington tonight. M. C. Kellogg, of Lexington, has been invited to attend the meeting together with other local fans who might be interested in seeing a team established in Richmond if the league is revived.

A number of Kentucky's small cities have been asked to be represented, including Winchester, Lexington, Maysville, Frankfort, Paris, Cynthiana, Owensboro, Paducah, Hopkinsville and Henderson.

Plans have been talked of for a revival of the Kitty League with the Western Kentucky towns named included, but the idea of coupling small cities up in this end of the state in a league with the Western Kentucky towns, is not setting well with the fans who might be willing to help put a small-town league on foot again. The jumps from Eastern to Western Kentucky would be far too great, it is argued, to permit of a financial success.

With the great increase in interest of the national sport many believe that Richmond could easily support a team of the calibre that put the old town on the map in the old Blue Grass League.

BURGLAR TRIES TO PRIZE DOOR OPEN

Mrs. Anna Russell and daughter, Miss Kate Russell, bookkeeper at Muncy Brothers', received a rather unwelcome visitor about the first night that they moved to their new rooms over the Western Union building on West Main street one night late last week. Along in the shank of the evening, Miss Russell heard some one prying open a screen door in the rear, and awakening her mother, they started an investigation and saw a man making a hasty getaway when he saw that he was discovered. They could not tell whether the would-be burglar was white or colored.

JOE OLDHAM SELLS HANDSOME HOME

One of Richmond's handsome new homes changed hands last week when Joe H. Oldham sold his brick residence at the corner of Main and North streets to Luther Hayden, of the Newby section. The consideration is understood to have been $14,500. Mr. Hayden gets possession January 1, it is understood, and in the meantime Mr. Oldham is looking for a location for his family—something that is rather hard to find in Richmond just at present. The residence is a very attractive two-story brick with all modern improvements, and was only completed by Mr. Oldham last summer.

BIG TRAIN ROBBERY

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 15.—Efforts were being made to recover between $1,000,000 and $1,200,000 stolen by train bandits when they broke into a mail car on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, between here and Council Bluffs, early Sunday.

Government officials refused to hazard a guess as to the amount stolen by the bandits. Railroad officials said it might not exceed $20,000.

A part of the loot was a Treasury shipment of gold from the United States Mint in San Francisco to the United States Treasury in Washington, it is reported. In addition to the gold there was vast quantity of currency, bonds and registered mail.

"There is no use to deny that it was the biggest train robbery in 25 years, if not in the whole history of the country," said Captain Charles Shafer, of the Council Bluffs police.

WHAT'S THIS? NO RETURN TO NORMALCY?

(By Associated Press)

Denver, Col., Nov. 15.—Doubt that any big decline will come soon and that prices ever will reach prewar levels was expressed by Senator Calder, of New York, chairman of the Senate Committee on Reconstruction and Production, which met here today to investigate housing conditions in Colorado and nearby states.

"As long as government loans are out," he said, "labor opposed to wage reduction and employers opposed to price reductions, I don't see much hope for a heavy decline immediately and am doubtful if prices ever attain a pre-war basis."

MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF TWO ACTRESSES

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Two young and pretty actresses are lying dead today in the morgue while police search for clues to their mysterious death early yesterday in Grant Park within a few hundred feet of the Michigan boulevard. Circumstances indicate murder. The bodies were identified as Marie Ramsey, a stock player, and Lillian Thompson, said to be the daughter of the chief engineer of the New York Hippodrome. The two women had an apartment on the North Side. They left it Saturday night to visit an Italian grocery a few blocks away. They made a few purchases and were never seen alive again after leaving the place.

WHO WILL HELP THIS GREAT CAUSE?

Practically every Red Cross chapter in the United States is dedicating two weeks beginning with Armistice Day, to the fourth roll call membership drive. On account of lack of public interest and co-operation, the Madison county chapter has been unable to put on this drive, but the executive committee, composed of Mrs. W. H. Grider, chairman; Mrs. D. L. Cobb; secretary-treasurer; Stone W. Norman, secretary home service; Mesdames James Burnam, J. M. Poyntz and W. R. Shackelford, directors, feel that some effort should be made to secure at least the names of those persons who have always been loyal to the cause and responded to its call.

Those persons sufficiently interested to see any of the above-named committee or call at the Citizens' National bank and leave their names and dollars will be aiding a most worthy cause, and greatly accommodating those in charge.

DR. WINNES DENIES WITNESSES' STORIES

Testimony May Be Concluded Today In Parsons Murder Trial At Harlan

Harlan, Ky., Nov. 15.—Prosecution and defense became involved in a bitter struggle Saturday to disprove statements and testimony that had been introduced against Dr. H. C. Winnes, state veterinarian, accused of having murdered Miss Lura Parsons, Pine Mountain school teacher, on September 7, in the examining trial which has been on in county court here since last Monday.

The defense, through the story told by Dr. Winnes while on the witness-stand, sought to eradicate much of the circumstantial evidence which has been built up against Dr. Winnes, while the commonwealth by bitter cross-examination attempted to shake Dr. Winnes from the story he told.

Dr. Winnes in his statement of facts concerning the case as he declared he knew them, was unusual. His story, if true, absolutely discredits the testimony of 20 witnesses or more for the commonwealth regarding the time he left Dillon behind Miss Parsons, and conversations he is said to have had with various persons.

Dr. Winnes was placed on the witness-stand until after three o'clock. Just before Dr. Winnes was placed on the stand, Attorney B. C. Jones, who is leading the fight of the defense, in a statement to the court declared that a motion to dismiss Dr. Winnes was in order, but that the defense would waive this privilege and would place Dr. Winnes on the witness stand.

The close of Dr. Winnes testimony in his own behalf was the signal for his being subjected to a grueling cross examination by Attorney A. Floyd Byrd.

For three hours or more Attorney Byrd questioned Dr. Winnes in an attempt to show the veterinarian must be mistaken in his statements. On one or two occasions Dr. Winnes, under the fire of questions asked by Attorney Byrd, lost the composure he had maintained throughout the week and answered the representative of the commonwealth in a sharp manner.

Dr. Winnes in his answer to questions during the cross examination denied most all of the conversations he is said to have had with persons at the Pine Mountain school and the railroad station at Dillon before he began his trip over the mountain.

Several questions asked him why he did not mention the fact to school authorities that he had seen Miss Parsons at Dillon and then on the way to the railroad track brought no explanation from Dr. Winnes other than "he didn't know."

He denied talking to Miss Mann a teacher at the school, about a lady who had started to the Pine Mountain institute, and also denied that he had made a remark attributed to him in reference to Miss Parsons, that "Damn her, I hope she falls down and breaks her neck." The story told by Winnes is apparently the one he has always told and the cross-examination made Saturday failed to shake it.

Thought it did show that if his story is true twenty or more witnesses introduced by the commonwealth had perjured themselves against the doctor.

Late in the afternoon, after Dr. Winnes had been excused from the witness stand, the defense introduced Willis Lewis, a brother of the man from whom Dr. Winnes hired the mule to make the trip to the Pine Mountain school. Lewis stated that he had met Dr. Winnes at the station and had started to tell his brother to bring the mule and take the doctor over the mountain. As he passed his home he stopped and had dinner. Lewis said he then went and told his brother that Dr. Winnes was at the depot. The defense attempted to show the actions on the part of Lewis would have taken an hour or more and that due to this the doctor would not have been able to leave Dillon until after 12 o'clock.

Examination of the witness by the commonwealth showed that Lewis was not sure of the time he consumed before he informed his brother that the doctor was waiting. Following this court adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock. More witnesses will be introduced at that time by the defense. All testimony in the case be completed Monday it is thought, and on Tuesday the arguments will be made. It is believed that on the close of the case the defense will ask that the case be dismissed. The commonwealth has already indicated that it will ask to be heard on such a motion and the case argued.

The court room was as crowded as it has never been. Men and women stood in the rear, no seats being available for them. Almost as many women as men were numbered among the spectators. Quite a few negroes were present, the most of them interested in James Robinson, the negro convict, who is also under arrest. During the day Senator Hiram Brock, commonwealth's attorney, Grant Forester, and Attorney Byrd received many telegrams from all sections of the state urging them to investigate the case thoroughly and to use every effort to solve the mystery of the murder.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL NOW ON

The Fourth Roll Call of the American Red Cross is on. It began Armistice Day and will continue through Thanksgiving Day, November 25th.

In the national enrollment 10,500,000 members are sought while in Lake Division—Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky—a membership of 1,500,000 is the goal.

In order to carry out its vast peace program, which embraces tasks of great magnitude both at home and in foreign lands, the Red Cross needs the united support of the American people.

Europe is looking to the Red Cross for relief during the coming winter, when cold and hunger again menace thousands, particularly in the impoverished countries of the East.

Just as the Roll Call opens word comes of the death in South Russia of Capt. Emmett Kilpatrick, of the Red Cross, at the hands of the Bolsheviks during a calvary raid.

This illustrates, in a striking way, the self-sacrificing service Red Cross is performing and how its workers are laying down their lives in the line of duty.

To what extent the Red Cross will be able to meet the pressing needs in this country depends upon the response of the American people in the Roll Call.

REPORTS ON WORK OF METHODIST CHURCH

Are Made To Council At Boston Along Various Lines of Denominational Activities

(By Associated Press)

Boston, Mass., Nov. 15.—Low salaries for ministers of the gospel have reduced their number to an inefficient minimum, according to a report submitted today to the Council of the Boards of Benevolence of the Methodist Episcopal church. The report came from Dr. Joseph B. Hingeley, chairman of the board of conference claimants, the organization which has had charge of raising the pension funds of the church.

Inadequate salaries and the resultant hardships have caused among ministers physical disability and mental poverty, forced clergymen to take up "side lines" in order to make a livelihood or else driven competent men from the profession and have kept from the work "the best equipped and most intellectual youth," according to the report.

The report gave a comparative list of average salaries paid by various denominations, but said the figures were misleading because the "larger" salaries make the average maximum amount for most of them. According to these figures the Protestant Episcopal church pays an average of $1,242; the Presbyterian (North) $1,177; the United Presbyterian, $1,096; the Dutch Reformed church, $1,170; the Methodist Episcopal (North) $1,176; the Congregational, $1,042, and the Baptist (Northern) $950.

Educational Work

Reporting on the work of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, Abram W. Harris, former president of Northwestern University and corresponding secretary of the board, told the church council that 130 educational institutions are sponsored by the board. Of this number 43 are colleges or universities; 22 are professional and graduate schools, 36 are secondary schools for whites and 11 were schools for negroes.

He said the property of the schools was valued at $39,000,000 and that their productive endowment is in excess of $34,374,000. Students total about 51,200 and the alumni number 119,834.

Dr. Harris said the board has relations with 15 schools for white people in the southern highlands and that because of funds raised by the church's centenary movement new buildings are being erected at John H. Snead Seminary, Boaz, Ala.; Murphy College, Sevierville, Tenn., and Baxter Seminary, Baxter, Tenn.

"Reformer's Creed" Offered

A "reformer's creed" was offered to the council of the boards of benevolence of the Methodist Episcopal church at latter's meeting here today by the Rev. Clarence True Wilson, corresponding secretary of the church's board of temperance and morals. The first article had to do with Americanization which it defined as "that achievement of national unity as an equipment for world service which the nation found it needed at the outbreak of the war and which need was just as imperative before we found it out."

The article advocated English as the exclusive basis for American education in the grade schools and as the medium of communication through every American published newspaper. "We must eliminate little foreign language groups segregated from the rest of our people," said the creed.

Discussing the "Divine Right of Democracy," the creed reiterated the "sovereign right of the people" to elect their own governing officers and advocated continuance of the direct primary system and extension of the initiative, referendum and recall.

Reverence for law, extension of prohibition, crusades against gambling, prize fighting and prostitution and a national censorship of moving pictures were further articles in the creed. Another article said: "I believe in an educational and moral suasion campaign against the personal use of the doped cigarettes which the tobacco trust foisted upon the country in war times."

Bible teaching in the public schools was also advocated and also Sabbath observance "as it stood before the German-American alliance trampled it in the mire of our American cities, to establish on its ruins their continental Sunday, adapted to a beer garden civilization and bolstering the type of German imperialism that went to crash."

sities and colleges, among negroes in the north and at army and marine bases, was described to the council by Rev. David H. Forsyth, corresponding secretary of the church board of home missions and church extension. In cities 596 pastors are being aided to the amount of $20,351 and 597 special workers have been employed at a cost of $397,418, according to the report. In rural fields, 2,977 preachers are receiving aid at a cost of $695,859 and 1054 churches, parsonages and parish houses are under construction, the home mission board contributing about $1,250,000 to these projects. In addition, the report pointed out, the department of church extension is looking after $900,000 worth of loans on churches and parsonages.

The permanent fund of the board, the report said, had been increased by more than three quarters of a million in the quadrennium and now contains $2,814,000.

Union Meeting Sunday Night Inaugurates Movement Designed To Help County

The Baptist church was filled Sunday night with the members of the various churches of the city to hear Mr. P. C. Dix, of Louisville; Mr. W. W. Hall, of Ashland, and Mr. Howard Taylor, of Berea. The interests of the Young Men's Christian Association were presented. Mr. Dix is the state secretary of the movement and Mr. Hall secretary of the eastern district of Kentucky, while Mr. Taylor was one of the overseas leaders during the war.

The addresses pointed out the important place which the movement holds in the life of the state in the conservation of our boys and young men and the development of their physical, mental, moral and social welfare. The district secretary defined the program in Eastern Kentucky and pointed out the way which the movement hoped to help Richmond.

A conference of leaders was held Sunday afternoon with reference to the movement in this city and Monday night there will be a meeting of about 20 of the community leaders to discuss the possibility of the formation of community committees which in co-operation with the secretary will develop the service program in Richmond. The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the First Christian church.

In view of the fact that Richmond is doing very little for her young men and boys the present seems opportune for the adoption of some plan that will make possible better opportunities for self-development of these groups.

For a number of years Mr. Dix has headed this work in the state and is one of the recognized leaders of the movement in the country. Mr. Hall has recently assumed the secretaryship in Eastern Kentucky and is doing a fine service. Richmond always hears with delight Mr. Taylor of Berea. The meeting Sunday night was a very helpful and successful one.

TWO BUSY OFFICES IN COURT HOUSE

County Tax Commissioner Ben Powell and his able assistant, Deputy Will Adams, are working hard on the county assessment books this week. Mr. Adams served on the petit jury in federal court the past week, but with that off his hands is back in the tax commissioner's office. It is hard to tell which office is the busier, the tax commissioner's office working on the assessment books of the county or the sheriff's office next door, where Sheriff Whitlock and all of his efficient deputies are kept hard at it from morning to night writing receipts for taxes for the past year.

Southern Engineer Killed

The engineer of the northbound train, C. C. Horn, of Hinton, Scott county, was instantly killed when a southbound extra freight and northbound freight No. 52 met in head-on collision on the Southern railway seven miles from Lexington early Sunday morning. No one was injured. Crews of both trains jumped when they saw a collision was unavoidable. Engineer Horn who was killed, weighs 250 pounds, and it is believed he was unable to get off the engine in time to escape injury. Both engines were badly wrecked. Ten cars were wrecked and 52 hogs in two stock cars one of the trains killed.

Gilberts Redeem the Eighth Twice

Did you know that many years ago Hon. George G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, redeemed this district from the republicans, and that his son, Judge Ralph Gilbert, did the same thing this year. Only twice has the Eighth elected republican congressmen, and the Gilberts got us back to "normalcy" both times. Seems to us the democrats owe them a debt of gratitude that they should pay.—Stanford Journal.

And it is worth while to note that the 8th district of Kentucky is said to be the only congressional district in the United States which turned out a republican and elected a democrat in his stead. Hurrah for Gilbert and the old Eighth!

TOBACCO SHOWS CROP DECREASE

Kentucky's 1920 tobacco crop is estimated at 420,750,000 pounds, corn 96,624,000 bushels, and potatoes 6,732,000 bushels in the November crop report for Kentucky issued Friday at Louisville and Frankfort by the U. S. Bureau of Crop Estimates in co-operation with State Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna. Other crops reports for Kentucky are: Sweet potatoes 1,680,000 bushels; apples, 5,780,000 bushels; pears, 308,000 bushels; clover seed, 52,500 bushels; and sorghum sirup, 2,888,000 gallons. Last year Kentucky's production of these crops was: Tobacco 456,500,000 pounds; corn, 82,500,000 bushels; potatoes, 5,040,000 bushels; sweet potatoes 1,680,000 bushels; apples 1,480,000 bushels; pears, 128,000 bushels; clover seed, 38,000 bushels, and sorghum sirup, 2,542,000 gallons.

The decrease in tobacco production in Kentucky from 1919 is due to decreased acreage in Western Kentucky which was not fully offset by the increased burley acreage. The damage by rust and "wildfire" also helped slightly to reduce the average yield per acre. Quality of tobacco in Kentucky is reported as 80 per cent compared to 81 per cent last year. The United States tobacco crop this season is estimated at 1,476,447,000 pounds compared to 1,389,458,000 pounds last year.

It is estimated that approximately 5 per cent of Kentucky's corn acreage was put into silos this season, the average yield per acre being about 7 tons. There was comparatively little frost damage to corn in this state but some is now being reported as chaffy and not well matured. The average yield per acre this year in Kentucky is 30 1-2 bushels, compared to 25 bushels last year and a 10-year average of 27 1-2 bushels.

BROKEN ARMS

While trying to catch some chickens roosting in his tobacco barn, Martin Coffey, of Brookstown, fell and broke his left forearm. A rail broke under his weight and precipitated him to the floor and the arm snapped when he fell on it. Dr. R. M. Phelps set the injured member.

Mrs. John W. Welch, of Berea, slipped on a banana skin there last week and, falling, fractured her left arm in two places, near the wrist and close to the elbow. The injury was quite painful.

HOW TO KEEP YOUNG And Guard Against A Premature Breakdown

A very large percent of men and women of middle age break down prematurely from apoplexy, nerve heart or kidney troubles. The only way to avoid it is to conserve vitality and strengthen vital resistance by keeping the blood corpuscles properly balanced.

If people in this vicinity who poor devitalized blood, are weak, run down, nervous, ailing could only realize the benefit to be derived from Vinol, cod liver and iron strength creator and body builder, druggists would not be able to supply the demand.

Mrs. W. J. Nixon says: "I was sick for months, had no appetite and no strength; my doctor advised Vinol. It gave me a hearty hearty appetite and restored my strength after everything else had failed." Why don't you try Vinol?

NEW STYLE LIFE BOAT

(By Associated Press)
Hook of Holland, Nov. 15.—An unusual type of life boat which operates by sucking water up from the ocean and blowing it back again, and so obtaining a speed of nine miles an hour, has been adopted by the life-saving crew which works in the stormy waters along the Dutch coast here. The boat has a hole in the middle, through which the water is drawn by an intake pipe which leads to a powerful centrifugal pump operated by a 140 horsepower steam engine. The water is then forced backward into the sea through two outlet pipes opening at the bottom of the craft.

It is claimed that the boat rests almost still in the stormiest of seas, the suction holding it firmly on the water.

16 ABOVE SATURDAY MORNING

Saturday morning thermometers registered 16 above zero at 5 o'clock. This is the lowest temperature of the present fall. The cold period, which was late in arriving, will be of short duration, rising temperature being predicted for the first of the week. Snow flurries were very apparent for a time Friday afternoon.

THAT PAVING WORK

The work of finishing the street paving will soon be announced. After today there will be but a little more and indications are that if favorable weather should prevail three days will find the closing up of the big task. Since the work has been concentrated on Main street, it has been progressing very rapidly.

FOURTEEN POUNDS OF BLOOD

Every Healthy Adult Should Have a Definite Quantity of Rich, Red Blood Coursing Thru Their Veins.

Pepto-Mangan Makes Red Blood Builds Up Men and Women Who Lack Energy

A healthy, full grown person has in the neighborhood of fourteen pounds of blood in his or her body. The weight of the blood varies with different people, but it should not vary with the individual.

For instance, if the normal weight of your blood is twelve pounds, and it falls off a pound in weight, it is one of the most precious pounds in the world, and should be immediately regained.

To turn weak, watery blood into live, red, health-building blood, take Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak, and listless.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

"Dead Men's Club" Is To Be Organized By Vets

Indianapolis, Nov. 13.—Agitation continues for the formation of a "Dead Men's Club," to be composed of ex-service men, who were reported dead by the War Department and who have risen from the "dead" into the valley of every-day life. The following letter of inquiry was received recently at Legion national headquarters in this city, from George D. Dickson, of New York:

"I beg to state the following facts which I think will prove to you that I am eligible to be a member, and for further proof, I think that my own death certificate from Washington would and any doubt. I have two telegrams to my mother confirming my death. A cablegram states that I was wounded September 29, 1918, which was the case, but then they followed it up with another one saying that I had died from my wounds October 9, which I can assure you is not true. The insurance papers were forwarded to my mother for signature, but she failed to sign, believing me alive. Two telegrams from Washington then came confirming my death. Dickson is holding a very 'live' job with a Manhattan printing company.

LOOKS FIFTEEN YEARS YOUNGER

Her Relatives Gave Up Hope of Mrs. Taylor's Recovery—Tanlac Proves Merit.

"A few weeks ago my friends and relatives didn't expect me to live much longer but now they are all telling me that I look fifteen years younger," said Mrs. Minnie G. Taylor, 310 21st street Huntington, W. Va.

"During the past year I was so bad off I spent much of my time in bed and when I did manage to be up it was an effort for me to get around of all. My digestion was so extremely poor that I was almost afraid to touch a bite and when I did eat anything it was through force. I suffered untold agonies after eating and I felt so nauseated I could hardly breathe. Nervous spells often came on me and I lost so much sleep I was on the verge of a complete breakdown. I tried so many medicines without getting relief that I almost gave up hope.

"Finally one of my friends who had been taking Tanlac advised me to try it. My appetite is just fine and I can digest anything I eat without the slightest trouble at all. My nerves are just as steady as can be and I am sleeping soundly every night. I have new life and strength and I will never be able to pay the debt of gratitude I owe Tanlac for it has been one of the greatest blessings of my life."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son; in College Hill by Ginter Brothers; in Berea by Welch Department Stores. It

Friday, December 24th, 3 P. M.

NATURE OF THE CONTEST

The contest will be open to every woman and child in Madison county. Every one has an equal chance to win the prizes. It costs you nothing to enter the contest.

The idea in putting on this contest is to create business for the Christmas trade. Each contestant will receive credit for the amount of business they send to our store from November 15th to December 24th.

A WORD TO THE WORKERS WHO ENTER CONTEST

First come to our store at your earliest convenience and register your name as a contestant. Second, go into the contest with a determination of winning the best prize. Third, make a thorough canvass among your friends and ask them to make their purchases at Muncy Brothers store, and give the salesman from whom they buy their articles the ticket with your name to be deposited in the ballot box, marking the amount of sale on the ticket.

Each contestant will be furnished with these tickets at the time they enter their name in the contest.

To the one sending the largest amount of business will be given the first prize. To the one sending the next largest amount of business will be given the second prize, and to the third winner the prize will be given for the largest number of customers sent to the store during the contest.

The more you work among your friends and neighbors the better the chance you will have in winning the prize. Don't enter the contest unless you expect to work. Make a house to house canvass, ask them to help you win a prize, and assure them that they can buy goods cheaper at Muncy Brothers store than any other place in this section.

Keep Your Blood Pure Nature Will Do the Rest

Did you know that ninety per cent of all human ailments depend upon the condition of your blood?

Nature gives her warnings in various unmistakable ways, so that when the appetite fails, and you become weak and listless and a general run-down condition seems to take possession of the whole body, it is an unfailing sign that impurities will steadily accumulate until your general health will be seriously affected. You should recognize the importance, therefore, of very promptly cleansing out the system, and keeping the blood supply pure and robust.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drugstore to day, and note how promptly it builds up the appetite and gives new strength and vitality. Write for free literature and medical advice to Chief Medical Adviser, 153 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

PAVING MEN LEAVE, WORK IS NEAR END

City Streets To Be Finished and Cleared Within a Week Say
Those In Charge

The first delegation of street paving men who have been engaged here for several months past departed for their homes Saturday at noon after receiving their last pay for work in the city of Richmond. The work will be completed, it is believed, and the last of the paraphernalia will have been taken away from the city within a period of one week.

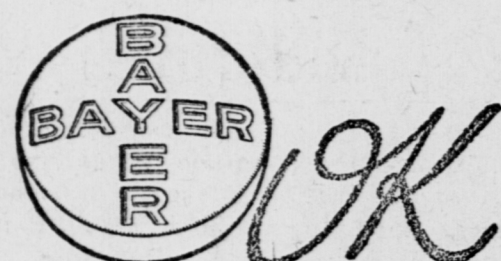

Three of the big trucks which have been utilized to haul the thousands of loads of material to the streets from the depot and stone quarries, departed with a number of the men who have been working on the concrete job. This has been finished and there will be but a few days required to finish the work of paving.

All of the blasting, which has been under the management of John Ferguson, of Louisville, has been finished. Mr. Ferguson departed for his home in Louisville, where he will remain for some time, after which he will resume work for the same company, probably going to Danville. Night Watchman Charles Kennedy who has been looking after the company's interests during the night for some time, was among those who left. John Henry, expert engineer, in charge of the paving roller, has gone to his home in Louisville, where he will take a rest. The big concrete mixer, together with the excavating machine, will soon be "bundled" and taken from the city.

Many of the workmen stated they did not relish leaving the city. "While the people here interfered with the work a good deal, getting upon it before it was ready, we all seem to have become so well acquainted that, it really seems like leaving home," was the statement of one of them. Most of the men who are leaving will still be employed by the same company, they being experienced hands at the business. They will be taken to the next job as soon as they desire to report for duty.

Found Still In Cave In Adair

Wm. Marquett and federal prohibition agents have returned after an exciting hunt near Columbia, Adair county, where they seized a still in a cave. Some idea of the hardships an enforcement officer goes through and to what extent he will go in quest of the illicit distiller is gleaned from report, which says they crossed a stream in the cavern on a thin rail. Another stream had to be waded. Then their flashlight burned out and they negotiated the remaining distance in snail fashion, finding the still about 450 yards inside the cave. Anyway the still was destroyed. No sign of life was found around the place and consequently no prisoners were taken.

At Logan, Ohio, three men failed in an attempt to kidnap Miss Ruth Heft, a linotype operator.

COLD WILL NOT LAST LONG

With snow flurries and much colder temperatures Friday, indications were for a continuance of the same for two days at least, when it is predicted that the present cold spell will have spent itself. There were many congratulating themselves, believing the predicted cold wave had side-tracked, however, its approach, while gradual, was noticeable.
